

PLACER COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE VETERANS DAY TRIBUTE

NOVEMBER 11, 2011

A MESSAGE FROM THE SHERIFF

It is such a privilege for me to introduce this special edition honoring the veterans who work for the Placer County Sheriff's Office, as well as several retirees. I would like to take this opportunity to introduce you to one of my heroes. His name is Al Cooper.

I first met Al when I became Sheriff in 1995. He was a legislative advocate for the California State Sheriffs' Association, but what a storied life he led.

In WWII, Al enlisted in the Army Air Corps and ended up in Foggia, Italy flying B24 Liberator bombers as part of the 726th Bombardment Squadron, 451st Bomb Group (Heavy) of the 15th Air Force. He actually flew two bombing missions on D-Day. On October 1, 1944, on his 23rd mission Al was the pilot of the Bad Penny and had just dropped his bombs on a tank factory in Vienna, Austria. Shortly after the bombs were deployed his aircraft was struck by flak bursts (anti-aircraft fire). Al was wounded and two of the plane's four engines were knocked out. Eventually a third engine became disabled and the crew was forced to bail out over German-occupied Hungary.

Al landed in a corn field and soon thereafter was approached by two Yugoslavian partisans. They did their best to shield him from German soldiers who were searching fervently for Al and his crew. The entire crew was rescued by partisans and reunited and given protection by a partisan army led by Marshal Josip Broz Tito. Al actually met Marshal Tito during his extended stay.

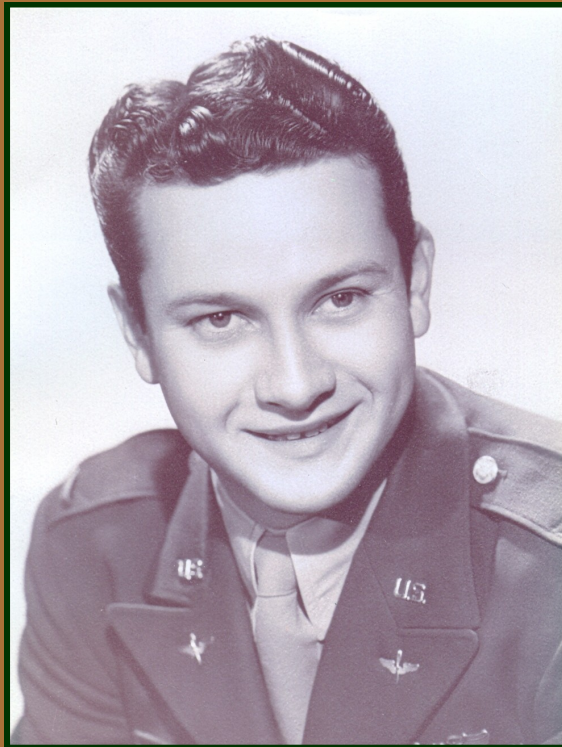

Living on the ground among the partisans was hard and dangerous. He was on the ground from October 1944 to April 1945.

After leaving active duty, Al remained with the Army Reserves until retiring in 1960 at the rank of Captain. In 1948, he joined the California Highway Patrol. Working his way through the ranks he retired in 1978 as Deputy Commissioner. He continued to advocate for public safety by working for the California Peace Officers' Association, California Police Chiefs' Association and the California State Sheriffs' Association. He retired from CSSA in 1998, but continues to represent the Sacramento County Sheriff's Office under the dome in Sacramento.

Al Cooper is my hero. You will find other heroes, other Al Coopers in the following pages. People who have served their country in our armed forces and continue to serve their country and community in public safety, working diligently to ensure our communities are safe places to live, work and raise our families. With this special Veterans Day edition, I salute each and every one. I thank you for your service then and now. It is my distinct honor to be associated with you all.
